Plans for new nursery at Millwey

AXMINSTER TOOLS & MACHINERY PROJECT WILL ALSO INCLUDE PRE-SCHOOL AND SOFT PLAY CENTRE

AXMINSTER Tools and Machinery's Director of Product, Ian Styles, says a brand new nursery and pre-school on Millwey Rise Industrial Estate would put Axminster top of the list for 'employees and employers'.

The company has submitted a planning application to build such a facility to relocate and expand Tick Tocks Day Nursery.

The project, funded by one of the Axminster Tools and Machinery pension funds, could

by Anders Larsson
anders@viewnews.co.uk

be completed in September 2017 if permission is given.

Mr Styles said: "Tick Tocks's relocation represents a new starting point for working families in Axminster.

"Situated on the Millwey estate and open all year round, from early hours to late afternoon, its biggest advantage is being able to drop off children with ease within walking distance for those working on the estate. It simply puts Axminster top of the list for employees and employers.

"We've some hurdles to jump over as we don't have planning as yet, but I have every confidence it will be strongly supported.

"As with all Axminster pension fund investments it is about localised investment in sustainable community projects and this one ticks the box 100 per cent."

Tick Tocks manager Lynn Knight said: "To have a purpose built nursery and pre-school that is built purely based on the needs of the children is a dream come true.

"This will enable us to further expand the opportunities and continuous provision available for the children and offer greater flexibility for their working parents."

Tick Tocks is currently situated in a bungalow in Lyme Close, but a move would see an opportunity to cater for many more children and take on more staff.

A sensory room and soft play area may be available for use by the general public out of care hours, and will allow the centre to cater for children with varying special needs.

The plan also includes a soft play facility for use by the general public out of care hours.

A café, for parents to meet with children at weekends or during holidays, is also part of the proposal.

If approved, Tick Tocks would be able to cater for about 50 children, compared to 25 today.

SEATON Public meeting called over beds

DOCTORS, town councillors and Seaton Hospital's League of Friends are gravely concerned about the possible closure of beds at Seaton Hospital.

They have called a public meeting on Friday, November 4th at The Gateway from 2pm to discuss the matter.

MP Neil Parish will be in attendance and it is hoped that decision maker NHS Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (NHS NEW Devon CCG) will be represented.

Whilst keeping beds at Seaton Hospital is the preferred option of the CCG, there are alternatives that don't feature any beds at all.

From the editor's chair Hospitals fighting for future

AXMINSTER fought and lost the battle. Ottery is going the same way. Now Honiton and Seaton are fighting to keep their hospital beds.

If the Axminster experience is any indication, any hopes of keeping the beds at Honiton Hospital are slim indeed. Very strong arguments for retaining some beds in Axminster were given scant consideration by NEW Devon CCG.

It was heartening to see cross party opposition to the plan to close the Honiton beds at the packed protest meeting at the Mackarness Hall.

Mayor Caroline Kolek set the tone with an impassioned defence for keeping the beds, declaring that her town had been dealt "a lot of injustice" in recent times.

County councillor Claire Wright spoke about the fight at Ottery St Mary where beds will almost certainly disappear.

Axminster lost their beds some months ago to Seaton where there are currently 24 beds available. Seaton is now facing the possibility of losing those beds.

NEW DEVON CCG have put forward four options, one of which would leave Seaton with no beds. Their preferred option, however, is for 24 beds to stay in Seaton with 32 at Tiverton and 16 in Exmouth.

Doctors in Seaton, with support from town councillors and League of Friends members, are concerned that the preferred option may not materialise and have called their own protest meeting at The Gateway on November 4th (at 2pm).

Communities up and down the country are facing the reduction in locals beds as the NHS pursues a policy of a greater emphasis on treating the sick at home. Most people would prefer to be treated at home but in many cases it's just not practical and patients very often cause bed blocking in larger hospitals because there is nowhere to send them. This policy will exacerbate that problem.

Sidmouth's 24 beds are included in two of the four options but not in the CCG preferred one.

The protesters at the Honiton meeting were given an evaluation sheet on the scoring criteria which many found confusing to the extreme.

One of the arguments put forward at the Honiton meeting was that an area with a population of 100,000 could end up with just 24 community beds. That prospect is alarming.

PHILIP EVANS

HONITON Town unites to fight closure of beds

HONITON residents, councillors and the local MP have expressed their outrage at the recent announcement that their hospital inpatient beds are set to close – and vented their anger at a public meeting.

More than 100 people packed into the Mackarness Hall last week to voice their displeasure at the recent announcement, and were greeted by cross party support from Conservative East Devon District Councillor Mike Allen, Honiton and Tiverton Labour Party spokesman Henry Brown and former independent parliamentary candidate and county councillor Claire Wright.

The Mayor of Honiton, Councillor Caroline Kolek, opened the meeting and addressed the crowd with a passionate defence of keeping the beds open: "I feel Honiton has been dealt a lot of injustice recently. This is just one in a long list of recent issues thrust upon the town."

Cllr Mike Allen added: "Proposals for cutting beds in East Devon go too far leaving only 24 bed spaces for around 100,000 of the populations despite travel difficulties in rural areas. For example, how can people from Dunkeswell or Honiton easily get to Seaton?"

"No account is taken of the expected rise of the frail elderly population by 83 per cent in a decade. "No account was taken of the central location of Honiton Hospital to the area."

Honiton Hospital's inpatient beds are set to close after they were left out of a public consultation, run by the NEW Devon Clinical Commissioning Group. Hospital beds in Seaton and Sidmouth are also under threat as part of the cost cutting consultation.

Cllr Claire Wright, who was part of the fight to save the inpatient beds in Ottery, gave the angry Honiton residents advice on how to fight the decision and how they should proceed.

Cllr Wright said: "As an Ottery councillor the reason I am active on this issue is because the proposals mean fewer beds in the system for all of us – and that affects everyone."

"It is completely undemocratic and unacceptable in my view that Honiton isn't even listed in the four options for retaining community hospital beds."

"In Ottery it looks as though we have probably lost our beds, despite a hard fight. We still have stroke beds but these are temporary."

COLYTON Amended planning application 'perverse'

AN AMENDED planning application to build up to 150 houses on the green wedge between Colyford and Seaton was labelled "rather perverse in many ways" during a public meeting of Seaton & Colyford Green Wedge Community Action Group.

The meeting, held at Marshlands in Seaton, was called after the outline application was submitted.

The outline planning application includes up to 150 dwellings and features a range of one, two, three and four-bedroom houses and 75 affordable homes; an employment area with up to 5,050 square metres for offices and 3,500 square metres for light industrial use backing onto the existing employment area off Harepath Road; a new football pitch and a training and recreation area; a new access road and associated landscaping and green infrastructure.

Last Wednesday evening's meeting was chaired by action group leader Howard West and Seaton Town Council planning committee chairman Martin Shaw.

The main objectives of the meeting were to inform members of the public and encourage them to oppose the application through East Devon District Council's (EDDC) planning process.

In a long-running saga, a number of applications have been made for the green wedge site since 2012, with two having previously been refused by the district council and one refused by the planning inspector after appeal.

SIDMOUTH Science week is better than ever

IT TAKES a lot in Sidmouth to rival the popularity and feel good factor surrounding Folk Week, but a group of volunteers running the town's science festival are starting to offer a worthy competitor.

The Sidmouth Science Festival is now in its fifth year, and has grown exponentially since the first weekend in 2012 to the now, stellar 10-day event that takes place in early autumn.

Over that time the festival has developed a successful formula.

Talks take place throughout the week and hands-on activities on the weekends; the Norman Lockyear Observatory hosts events on Sunday and, behind the scenes, the festival works closely with local schools by hosting events.

SOUTH SOMERSET Vaccinate your kids against the flu

WITH flu season fast approaching, Somerset County Council is urging parents across the area to make sure their children are vaccinated against the virus.

While so much focus is put on the elderly population during this time, the county council is making sure that parents know how and where to get the vaccination, which is free on the NHS for children who were aged between two to seven on August 31st 2016.

All children aged between two and four will continue to get the vaccination from their GP and parents need to arrange an appointment for this.

In Somerset, children in Years 1 to 3 at school will be vaccinated by school nurses. This continues after an initial pilot last year, which showed this approach was more acceptable to parents, resulted in increased uptake and had the greatest impact on reducing illness.

Parents will receive information and a consent form from the school, which they need to sign and return to ensure that their child is able to have the vaccination.

Councillor Anna Groskop, Cabinet member with responsibility for health at Somerset County Council, said: "Flu can be horrible for little children and if they get it, they can spread it around the whole family and to friends."

Missing boy's parents make emotional plea for him to get in touch with them

THE parents of missing Membury boy Arthur Heeler-Frood have made an emotional plea for him to get in touch.

It has now been six weeks since 15-year-old Arthur was last seen at his home in Membury, near Axminster, on the morning of Tuesday, September 6th when it was thought he was planning to cycle to Colyton Grammar School.

His bike was later recovered in Axminster and the next day his family received a letter saying he wanted to spend some time away from home.

Arthur's parents, Jeremy and Caroline Heeler-Frood, have now gone on camera to appeal directly to their son.

In an emotional plea, Mrs Heeler-Frood said: "We're missing you terribly. We don't know that you're safe or what situation you're in. I don't think you realise how hard it is for us, please make contact."

Mr Heeler-Frood told Arthur that if he did not want to call home, he could phone the charity Missing People on 116000, which would not trace his call but would pass on any message.

He added: "Better still, come home and talk to us. If there are any aspects of your life you're not happy about, there are other options we can consider together."

"We'd like to take this opportunity to thank all our friends and family and members of the public for all their goodwill and support."

Mr Heeler-Frood also thanked the police for their efforts in trying to find Arthur.

Mrs Heeler-Frood added: "Just let us know you're safe Arthur, please."

Police are now appealing to anyone who may have employed Arthur, accommodated him or who may have provided him with transport in the weeks he has been missing to get in touch.

Superintendent Sam de Reya said: "We are appealing to business owners, likely to be restaurateurs, hoteliers and cafe owners who may have had a young man work for them in the last four to five weeks or anyone who may have provided him with accommodation in that time period."

Arthur is five foot, five inches tall, of slight build with short brown hair.

It is thought he would have changed into casual clothes – possibly blue jeans, a black hoodie and two-tone beige and black Element jacket, and he was carrying a black rucksack. It is also thought he may have cropped or shaved his hair.

If anyone has any information on Arthur's whereabouts they should contact police on the designated phone number 0800 096 1233 quoting reference number 255 of September 14th.

Arthur's family have also launched a website appealing for any information on him, which can be found at <http://arthurheelerfrood.wixsite.com/helpfindarthur>

Curry and quiz fundraiser

A CURRY and quiz evening will be held to raise money for the Axminster Food Bank and Wishing Well Cancer Support Group.

The event, organised by Axminster Wellbeing Centre, will be held on Thursday November 10th from 7.30pm to 10pm in the Guildhall.

Centre manager Aynsley Jones said: "We are looking for funds due to the aftermath of the flood to our cellar and for more bursary funds for the cancer support group, so people having cancer treatment do not have to travel a 60-mile round trip for treatment."

"Spice and Rice is donating the food for the event and volunteers are giving their time. The town council has donated money for the rent of the Guildhall and local businesses have donated some great prizes."

"The evening will only cost £10 for curry (there will be a vegan option), sorbet and quiz (eight rounds).

"We would really like the community to get behind this evening."

Tickets are on sale at Archway Bookshop and Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre.

Hospital back to normal after burst water main

SERVICES at Axminster Community Hospital have returned to normal after a burst water main and flooding last week.

Some services resumed on Monday, October 10th and the restoration was completed the following day.

A spokesperson for Royal Devon & Exeter NHS Foundation Trust said: "The flooding, from a burst water main pipe, caused some infrastructure damage and affected the hospital's IT services and electricity supply."

"As a result, services at the hospital had to be temporarily suspended."

"Staff from the Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust and Northern Devon Healthcare Trust, together with partner organisations, worked jointly throughout last week and into this week to fix the problems."

"We would like to apologise for any inconvenience caused to patients during this period of temporary closure and thank all staff for their efforts."

Council chairman at Great Fire anniversary

DEVON'S contribution to the disaster relief fund following the Great Fire of London in 1666 was highlighted when county council chairman Andrew Moulding was invited to a special anniversary event in the capital.

Councillor Moulding was one of 150 guests invited to Mansion House to mark the 350th anniversary of the Great Fire of London. The Lord Mayor of London, Lord Jeffrey Mountevans, and his full civic team hosted the Great Fire Afternoon Tea to acknowledge the support of the country's towns and parishes who in all had sent £12,794 (equivalent to £1.9 million in today's money) for the relief of distress following the Great Fire of 1666.

Cllr Moulding, from Axminster, said: "It was a fascinating event and I was particularly honoured and proud when, to my surprise, in his address the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor said he 'particularly welcomed Councillor Andrew Moulding as Devonshire had raised £1,480 – far more than any other area'.

"That's equivalent to about £220,000 now and quite a coup for Devon too."

Although only a tiny number of the county's population would have visited London, many parish records refer to 'briefs' – collections of money in churches for the fire relief.

Collections were taken in every church in England and Wales, although the sum collected was sometimes modest, as plague still affected many parts of the country.

Anti-power station campaign heats up

CAMPAIGNERS have been busy mobilising support to fight a planning application for a power station off Stonebarrow Lane in Hawkchurch. The application for a 'gas-fired energy reserve facility' – which includes a building with a footprint of up to 45.2metres x 20.5 metres, a roof height of 10 metres and stack height of 13 metres – is of huge concern to many residents. Aided by members of Frack Free Lyme Regis and Turn Lyme Green, concerned residents are determined to fight the proposal. Their campaign began last week, when the group invited newspapers, radio stations and television crews to the village.

Health and wellbeing exhibition raises £1,000

A HEALTH and wellbeing exhibition attracted more than 300 people to Axminster Guildhall and raised almost £1,000.

The event was organised by Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre on Saturday, October 8th.

Centre manager Aynsley Jones said: "It was an enjoyable day of therapies, tea ceremonies, oils, candles and health products for the body."

"Everyone left feeling a little more relaxed than when they came in and found what they were looking for."

"The day created a good awareness of what is on offer in our community to assist with health and wellbeing issues."

She also said the event raised nearly £1,000 through donations, raffle and the café, and explained: "This money will go back into our vital community projects of the Axminster Family Wellbeing Project, the Wishing Well cancer support group and Axminster Food Bank. These projects assist on average 30 - 40 households a week to improve their lives."

"We would like to thank the community who came out to support us at this event."

Meeting over dogs on Jubilee Field

AXMINSTER Town Council has called an extra meeting tonight to find a compromise for dog access to Jubilee Field.

The Amenities Committee meeting will have only one item on the agenda and it will be held in Pippins Community Centre, starting at 7pm today (Tuesday, October 18th).

People power convinced town councillors that dogs should be allowed on Jubilee Field in Axminster.

The extent of dog access is yet to be agreed, but a compromise has been promised.

As previously reported, local residents quickly formed a pressure group (led by Aimee Seward, Angie Wiley and Karen Price) after it was announced that dogs would be banned from the field for a year until Axminster Town Council takes ownership.

But after an hour-long debate on Monday evening, Axminster Town Council referred the matter to its Amenities Committee, with a view to finding a compromise.

Mayor Cllr Paul Hayward said: "The amenities committee will take onboard points made and come up with a compromise."

The decision was met with loud cheers and applause from a large group of dog

■ DISCUSSION: town councillor and former mayor Jeremy Walden outlines one option at the town council meeting owners attending the meeting.

Going into the meeting, Axminster Town Council had already indicated a U-turn, proposing to provide a fenced-off dog area earlier than planned.

Current landowner Betterment Properties had told both the council and the campaign group that it was happy for a third of the field to be fenced-off for dogs as soon as possible. But dog owners were concerned that the area allocated is easily waterlogged, and there were also calls for a larger area for dogs.

Councillor Andrew Moulding, for example, suggested the whole field should be accessible for dogs, but councillor Sue Spiller was against that idea.

She openly admitted she is afraid of dogs and asked why people like her should effectively be excluded from the field.

At one stage she had to reprimand a member of the public in the crowd, who appeared to mock her fear of dogs.

The debate widened to include proposals for a running track to be included.

The day after the meeting, town councillor Jeremy Walden made an announcement on social media saying: "I have called a meeting of the Amenities Committee for next Tuesday, October 18th at 7pm at Pippins Community Centre."

"I would hope representatives of the dog walkers would come along and we can discuss the possibilities, and hopefully find a solution to please everybody."

"Coffee and cakes on me."

When Axminster Town Council takes over ownership it will get £10,000 towards field facilities as part of what is known as a Section 106 Agreement.

Axminster Tools and Machinery organised the event, ably assisted by The Rotary Club of Axminster.

The two jointly chose four charities to benefit from this year's Axpedition - Exeter Leukaemia Fund (ELF), The Project, British Heart Foundation and HALFF.

A spokesperson for Axminster Tools and Machinery said: "We raised over £4,000 and had a total of 256 sign-ups.

"It was a great day, well marshalled and a good challenge."

Curtain fire at hall

FIREFIGHTERS from Axminster, Chard and Lyme Regis rushed into action when curtains caught fire at Coaxdon Hall, Axminster.

The alarm was raised just after 11.50pm on Tuesday, October 11th, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "It was found to be a fire within a downstairs reception room involving the curtains.

"Using breathing apparatus, crews managed to enter the property extinguish the fire and remove the curtains from the property and out into the open.

"Crews then set about ventilating the property using positive pressure ventilation fans.

"The cause of the fire was accidental. Crews left the scene at 12.55am."

Tesco fundraiser pays for trip to sanctuary

A FUNDRAISER in an Axminster supermarket paid for a day-trip for almost 20 visually impaired people.

The Tesco branch in Axminster held the weekend-long fundraiser in April for the Seaton and District Visually Impaired Club, which caters for both towns.

Tesco Axminster Community Champion, Rob Cope, said: "The £205 raised by Tesco customers fully paid for 18 club members to be picked up from their homes by taxi and taken to the Donkey Sanctuary in Sidmouth.

"During a small tour they were told all about the history of the sanctuary and also learned about the donkeys.

"After meeting the donkeys, the group enjoyed a cream tea and a visit to the gift shop before returning home by taxi.

"The club members wanted a nice day out and they voted for the sanctuary.

"They were looked after by the staff whilst there and had a really good time.

"This was all down to the generosity of the local community who shop with us.

"On behalf of the club and Tesco Axminster, we would like to thank those customers for their support."

Council vacancy to be filled by co-option

A TIMETABLE has been set for filling the vacancy on Seaton Town Council.

The casual vacancy will be filled by co-option, with any interested eligible person being invited to apply.

Forms are available to download online at www.seaton.gov.uk or by picking one up at the Marshlands Centre in Harbour Road.

The closing date for receipt of completed applications is Monday, October 31st at 3pm.

Mayor Cllr Marcus Hartnell said: "Being a councillor is a hugely rewarding role and a fantastic opportunity for anyone who wishes to engage with the local community, and to make a difference.

"The process of co-option requires you to present yourself and demonstrate how you would be a valuable member of the council.

"Existing councillors will then vote, to decide which candidate they wish to see fill the vacancy."

The process of selecting the new councillor will take place in November.

Samba band's first birthday

SEATON'S first community Samba band, who play the very hottest and loudest of Brazilian carnival rhythms, are celebrating their first birthday.

The group started a year ago when a few like minded friends got together to start the band.

Through hard work and fundraising they have purchased instruments and now have more than 20 players of all ages from 12 to 70 years old.

Band member Sue Althorpe said: "Playing samba is fun and exciting. We've all made lots of new friends and have enjoyed going out into the community playing at local events.

"We're looking forward to an exciting year ahead."

The group is always looking for new members and no experience is needed to join; instruments are provided. They meet on Tuesday evenings. For more details contact Sue 01297 598220

Work well under way on Jurassic mini golf course

WORK on the Jurassic-themed mini golf course in Seafeld Gardens is expected to be completed by the end of the month.

Work eventually got under way on the £71,500 project in mid-September

The mini-golf course is paid for by money collected by East Devon District Council from developers as part of planning consent conditions.

More than two years ago it was announced that money would be allocated after the project topped a public vote held by East

Devon District Council (EDDC).

Almost half of the 270 people who cast a vote supported the project, but progress slowed down.

In January this year it was announced that the facility might be complete for this year's Easter, but that didn't happen.

But it has been full steam ahead since mid-September and Councillor Iain Chubb, EDDC's portfolio holder for the Environment, said: "This new Jurassic-themed golf course will tie-in superbly with Seaton Jurassic and will further strengthen the town's visitor attractions on offer.

"From what I have seen of the designs for the facility, it is going to be a very striking and stylish golfing amenity, offering lots of fun and visual interest.

"Seaton has done well to get this installed so close behind Seaton Jurassic's opening and I am sure it will be a great success when it opens next year.

"It's a terrific amenity and I'm not surprised that it was the local community's favourite choice."

The facility will be managed and maintained by LED, whose area manager Marcus Allen said: "LED is looking forward to the adventure golf opening next spring.

"We hope that the course will be a big hit with both local residents and visitors to the town.

"The dinosaur theme ties in well with the Jurassic Coast, and we hope that it will encourage people to visit some of the wonderful gardens at the western end of Seaton seafront."

Property networking group launches tonight

THIS evening (October 18th) sees the launch of a new monthly networking group covering Devon and Dorset.

The Devon and Dorset Investment Group (DDIG) has been set up by local property developers Isabel Knight and Steve Colley of Esprit Property, with the aim of creating an environment for meeting, educating, connecting and collaborating with other local people interested in or already involved in property investment and property development.

Isabel, who lives in Seaton, and Steve, from Plymouth, have recently moved back to Devon after 15 years living in France, building and renovating apartments and chalets in the Alps around Chamonix.

The idea for DDIG came about from their desire to meet and collaborate with other local people investing in property in the area, and the recognition that there are few other property networking groups in East Devon and West Dorset.

The monthly DDIG meetings will provide a great networking environment and the chance for those attending to learn about property investment and property development, exchange ideas and meet and connect with local experts able to help them fulfil their property aspirations.

Lyme Regis architectural consultant Jim Larcombe will co-host the meetings, and Lyme Regis Football Club has donated their venue for the meetings.

DDIG meetings will be open to everyone, no matter how much experience or property they have, as long as participants are serious about becoming even more successful and willing to be inspired to take action.

The meetings will take place every third Tuesday of the month and each month there will be specific topics relevant to property investors, including updates on the local property market and guest speakers who will share their expertise in the market.

Rest assured there will be no one selling property at the meetings but there will be a chance to meet others and share opportunities in the local area.

The property seminar will begin at 7pm, but drinks and networking will begin at 6pm.

If networking is new to you then don't worry, DDIG will make it easy and fun so that you can enjoy the positive effect of being with like-minded people and also benefit from the practical aspect of tapping into advice, expertise and contacts that you wouldn't otherwise be able to get hold of.

The first meeting will be held at Lyme Regis Football Club on Charmouth Road Tuesday, October 18th from 6pm to 9pm.

A spokesperson said: "Add to your existing property investing knowledge and skills, save yourself, time, money and effort by learning from the experts and build up your personal contacts in the property world."

The meeting is free to attend and there will be tea and coffee available and a bar.

For further information on DDIG, contact Heather Larcombe by emailing heather@jimlarcombe.co.uk, call 07824 861 909 or visit the website www.espritproperty.co.uk

THORNCOMBE WI members recently celebrated their 99th birthday alongside guests from neighbouring WIs.

Anne Johnson-Rooks, a member of the WI said: "We were extremely fortunate to be entertained by Mr Steven Wells (pictured below), a member of the Magic Circle, who spoke of its history whilst regaling us with fascinating tales of some of its illustrious members, both past and present.

"The magic he performed was amazing, and included a hair-raising trick called the Chinese Chopper, which he carried out with the help of our president, who fortunately survived! Steven has entertained many clubs across the country.

"Pomeranian magic was a trick famed by Ali Bongo, 'The Shriek of Araby', involving coloured balls being moved up, down and sideways in a fiendishly clever frame (impossible to fathom how this could be done), and several cunning card tricks which left the audience bemused.

"There were tales of Chung Ling Su, the ill-fated Chinese magician, and of course the legendary Harry Houdini.

"We could have watched the magic all evening, but awaiting us was a delicious supper prepared by members, after which we enjoyed

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, November 8th at 7.30 pm in the village hall, when there will be a talk on Papercraft. Hosts will be Julie Honeybourne and Rosemary McCrimmon. The competition will be for a paper flower.

New members and visitors will be most welcome – contact Julia Snellock on 01460 30135.

Talks at Probus Club meetings: Windsor Fellowship

AXMINSTER: Returning to Axminster Probus Club's October meeting to continue his account of his epic 9 ½ months' walk around coastal Britain in 1983, George Williams proved again that his speaking skill more than matches the stamina he showed all those years ago.

George had started out in the RAF before becoming a psychiatric nurse at Broadmoor prison. It was during this time that he decided to undertake his walk for charity. He needed a companion (none of his RAF friends were willing to join him!) so sought a dog from kennels in Exeter, taking three weeks for Jack to get to know him.

The walk had begun in Topsham, but his second talk picked up the journey as he made his way around the Wash, taking 40 days to make his way from London to Edinburgh.

Many incidents and encounters were described, some amusing, some exciting. On one occasion he made strenuous efforts to 'save' a man half way down a cliff only to learn he was the local RSPB warden checking on gulls!

Accommodation was sometimes pre-arranged but often had to be begged, borrowed or acquired. After a night in a 'shed', George and Jack were rudely awoken by pigeons returning to their loft and doing what pigeons do!

After 4½ months they reached John O'Groats, crossing the top of Scotland and starting the long, long trek south....which is where George ran out of time and will be returning to the Probus Club next year for part three.

The Axminster Probus Club for retired and semi-retired business and professional men meets in a private room at the A35 Pit Stop, Gammons Hill, Kilmington on the first Tuesday of each month. At its next meeting, on 1 November, Robert Musgrave returns to give 'More Talk About Inn Signs' followed by an optional lunch. Prospective members are always welcome. For further information ring 01460 220528.

HONITON: At the September meeting of the Honiton Probus Club the membership were given a talk by Paul Rendall on The Legends of Dartmoor.

His talk ranged from myth to unexplained mystery, the former included stories of people being turned into the granite tors that we know today and the latter, a stone circle that Dartmoor ponies visit, run around the inner circumference three times then leave.

He talked about the well known site of 'Jay's Grave' near Hound Tor and the fact that flowers are always placed on it from sources unknown.

He also described sightings of unexplained human presences as far apart as Princetown and Okehampton.

Next month's talk will be on the RNIB by Laura Board.

The Club meets on the last Thursday of each month at the Heathfield Inn in Honiton.

Anyone interested in joining Probus can call John on 01404 43392 or visit the web site www.sites.google.com/site/probushoniton/home or Google Honiton Probus Club.

HONITON ART SOCIETY: Dorset based artist, Marilyn Allis, painted two vibrant watercolours for members of Honiton Art Society at their October meeting.

Using large brushes – sizes 30, 16 and 10 – she paints loosely with no unnecessary detail, creating paintings full of movement and colour.

For her demonstration she had previously sketched two scenes on heavyweight watercolour paper.

The first was a horse racing scene which she began by rubbing in a few highlights with wax (this would resist the paint when applied). Then the background was wetted before a wash of Raw Sienna and Ultramarine, adding Cadmium Yellow to a foreground wash.

Marilyn was careful not to let the wash run over the outline of the jockeys which would muddy the later applications of colour.

The washes were dried with a hair drier before work was started on the jockeys and horses using a size 16 brush.

Marilyn uses Intense Violet as the base colour for her shadows as she considers this produces a more interesting result.

A flesh tint of Light Red and Sepia was used for the jockeys' faces, with no added detail.

Some of the other colours used in this picture were Prussian Blue and Sepia for darkest darks, Burnt Sienna and Sepia were good colours for the horses. To finish, shadows painted under the horses anchored them to the ground.

Marilyn's second painting was a group of Mediaeval Musicians in their colourful attire. After applying a light wash of Raw Sienna over the background and drying, work started with the faces of the group, using the Light Red and Sepia mix, again omitting any facial features.

The outfits of the musicians were painted thickly using strong colours, Prussian Blue and Sepia for the darks, a watered down Crimson and Prussian Blue mix for pale shadows – keeping a strong tonal contrast added drama to the group.

A Burnt Umber shadow under the figures completed the painting.

Marilyn kept the background pale to add impact, always being careful not to over work the painting and loose its spontaneity.

Chairman Barrie Raby, thanked Marilyn for an interesting demonstration, which would help us all achieve more vibrant and dynamic water colour paintings.

The next meeting of the society is on November 14th when Colin Brown will be demonstrating a street scene in mixed media at Awliscombe Village Hall, from 2 to 4pm. Visitors welcome, entrance fee £4.

THE Autumn Season of the Windsor Fellowship got off to a good start with a talk by Peter White entitled 'A Bus Ride in Paris'.

With the aid of slides, he compared towers such as the Eiffel Tower with the Post Office Tower, the arches of the Arc de Triumf with the Admiralty Arch and various cathedrals, palaces and underground stations where, it has to be said, the Parisian versions were quite spectacular.

He then followed the route of the number 24 bus from Bercy and the Gare St Lazare, across the Seine to the Île de la Cité and Notre Dame, past the Louvre, les Tuileries and the tomb of Napoleon III before arriving back at Bercy.

The whole journey was accompanied by slides from long ago with the updated versions now in use with many interesting facts along the way.

On the following Wednesday, a musical afternoon arranged by the Rev Ian Kirby started off with the storm music from Beethoven's Pastoral Symphony followed by a wide variety of music including beautiful Welsh melodies and hilarious Morecombe and Wise skits.

Following on with Chud Berry's rendering of Roll Over Beethoven by the Electric Light Orchestra, Ian finished with Billy Joel's River of Dreams.

Colyford WI enjoy Harvest Lunch

COLYFORD WI members started their meeting on October 5th with a tasty Harvest Lunch. Afterwards, photographs of the attractive East Devon countryside with its hedgerows, meadows, caves, old barns, etc, illustrated the importance of the area for the Greater Horseshoe Bat.

Pete Youngman, representing the Devon Wildlife Trust, gave an interesting talk about the bats themselves and the project which will help these bats to flourish by maintaining and enhancing the key habitats of the local area. His talk generated lively discussion and questions.

Since the last meeting some ladies had enjoyed a lunch and there will be a coffee morning in October.

Final details were provided regarding the Devon Federation Autumn Council Meeting later in the month. Members were also told about the Group Quiz in November plus plans for an outing to a Christmas market and for the Christmas meal.

The next meeting is on Wednesday 2nd November with a talk about Fine Bone China. For more information contact Elizabeth Harding on 01297 624250.

Loss of hospital beds a 'slap in the face'

COPY of letter sent to the 'Success Region CCG Exeter'.

■ I UNDERSTAND that you propose to close some community hospitals and reduce, dramatically, the local hospitals' inpatient beds. It has confirmed some of my worst fears, made worse by poor publicity. Not all, including me, are on the internet, least of all the elderly and vulnerable whose lives are most in need of local community hospital beds for rehabilitation, convalescence etc, rather than bedblocking in Wonford.

But I must say "thank you" that at last common sense has prevailed and 'we' are back under 'Exeter', the obvious choice in the first place. The waste of money in this process must be colossal. But I don't see why Barnstaple is made to suffer. Surely the nearest big hospitals should provide for emergency care?

What a slap in the face to all Leagues of Friends, the amount of money raised by them to bring community hospitals into being in the first place and their ongoing financial and voluntary support over many years. What about the nurses recruited to local hospitals and now dropped? You will be aware how much money has been raised by our Seaton Hospital League of Friends to provide, eg: complete solar heating, much physiotherapy equipment, special mattresses, TVs, minor op' needs, equipment to help ENT and dermatological needs. You will lose all the goodwill and voluntary fundraising by local supporters as has happened at Axminster Hospital, Honiton, Ottery and Okehampton must be devastated. If we lost our Seaton hospital beds I would seriously have to reconsider my membership of their League of Friends who have worked so hard to make Seaton Hospital such a wonderful place.

We must be open to some changes, but there will always be a need for community hospital beds, especially for those who live on their own without family support. Can you imagine a lonely patient waiting in bed all day for care workers, not knowing when she can be toiletted etc? A care worker may be ill, what happens then? It is because of the spoken worries of a community nurse to a housebound friend ("there will never be enough carers to cope", and "I'd like to challenge a manager to come on my rounds to see how difficult it is") that these present proposals have chanced to reach me.

The NHS has a duty of care to all patients. Can it be sure that you are not motivated to care on the cheap, ie carers are usually women and not paid adequately, often without the provision of a car? Will treatment be sufficiently supervised?

Management seems to assume all patients have the use of a car or a regular bus stopping near their homes to attend the hubs envisaged. Surely all local hospitals can be hubs, including those with inpatient beds?

I have known many grateful friends who have been so grateful for Seaton hospital beds including for serious cancers, heart conditions, strokes, crippling osteoporosis, dementia crises, made worse by diabetes, blindness and deafness. One with spinal cancer was able to walk and use his hands again by intensive physio at Seaton; likewise a patient with two broken shoulders. If you think these would have been better dealt with at home, please think again.

Thank you that Seaton is in the top option. Option 'A' is also my choice, if change proves needed. Your main aim should be to spend more on treatment than on administration.

JANET LANG, Seaton

PS Since then I have seen posters in our surgery: 'Save Seaton Hospital beds. If we lose them our hospital will close and be sold off.' The shock has hastened my letter to you.

Blocked Hospiscare shop access

■ I MOVED to Honiton three years ago and was soon told about the marvellous work of Hospiscare. Last year my husband's lung cancer came back and they were wonderful to us. My husband died last July and I thought in time I would like to give something back. When helpers were wanted for the new warehouse shop, in Honiton, I was the first to sign up in June and I have helped out ever since except for the last two weeks spent away on holiday with family.

When I came back from holiday and found the gateway blocked it made it very difficult for me to get to the shop. I feel to blame as I have been using the gateway for the last three months without any harm as I hold onto the gate. You see I am 83 years old and disabled (walking with a stick or crutch) and someone may have seen me using the gateway every week.

Closing this entrance will also have a big effect on our customers who also use this means to carry items safely to their cars. I will have to give up my help if the gateway is not re-opened and I would have thought that the council could find a better solution to this matter rather than stopping people from accessing such a wonderful cause.

Damaged wall warning

■ I WOULD refer to your headline story in Axminster Pulman's dated Tuesday, October 4th 2016, "Sixteen animals killed after wall collapses" and comment as follows to set the story straight:

Over the last couple of years I have been commissioned by Magnolia House Care Home to carry out various menial tasks when needed.

During the period of July 27th-28th 2015 a request was made by the Principal of Magnolia House Care Home to clear the vegetation and overgrowth evident on the other side of Magnolia House car park wall.

The overgrowth of vegetation was causing damage and distress to the wall.

With permission of the farmer who owned the field the vegetation was cut back and burnt over the period mentioned, all before the present owners purchased the property and field.

The Principal of Magnolia House then requested after cutting back the vegetation to place metal stakes and warning tape along the length of the wall, three meters from the base. This request was duly carried out on completion of the clearance works.

Some six months after the purchase of the property by the present owners, they removed the warning tape and stakes where they deposited them back into the car park of Magnolia House, all without any consultation with Magnolia's Principal.

I can't understand the logic that they then decided to locate their chicken run and rabbit hutch at the base of the wall, while they were aware of the danger of the wall, once signified by the cordoned-off area.

I hope this clarifies the movements leading to this unfortunate incident.

Crazy golf location

■ RE: Crazy golf amenity in Seafeld Gardens, Seaton. There continue to be strong objections to this from local residents.

There is clearly a suitable piece of land alongside the Jurassic Centre that would suit such a project so much better. It is close to the Jurassic Centre and the car park, and the Jurassic-themed play park.

Albeit this land is owned by someone different, it is not beyond imagination that someone in authority could have negotiated with the owners.

By all accounts if the golf was here it would catch a far wider footfall and would become viable. It is doubtful that the same will be true in Seafeld Gardens.

Recently you carried an article about funds being designated by some authority or other to mark some of the local historical points including Seafeld Gardens. It seems utter hypocrisy that at the same time the gardens are being desecrated.

Fairground opens gates early for residents with learning difficulties

Adults with learning difficulties in Chard took part in a fun filled morning, as the carnival fair-ground opened its doors early – just for them.

In what is now an annual tradition before the start of Chard Carnival, the visiting Marshall Herbert's Family Fun Fair opened up and allowed people with disabilities the freedom of the fair.

The initiative was put in place to allow the local residents to have a go on the dodgems, spinning teacups and other fairground rides without having to queue, or go out late at night.

The Mayor of Chard, Councillor Dave Bulmer – who also attended the event and enjoyed his turn on the bumper cars – called it a great idea while the Mayor of Ilminster, Councillor Val Keitch, also praised the initiative and the fun fair for opening up early.

■ SPINNING AROUND: Two fun fair goers enjoyed one of the more extreme rides

■ IN THE DRIVER'S SEAT: The Mayor of Chard, Councillor Dave Bulmer, had a go on the dodgems

'Tis the season for saving!

By Vicky Shaw, Press Association

YOU may not feel in the festive spirit just yet - but now may be an ideal time to start budgeting to ease the strain on your wallet over Christmas.

People typically spent £506 on Christmas 2015 on gifts, food and drink, and socialising.

The total bill was 8% higher than the average cost in 2014, according to findings from Halifax.

Nearly a third (29%) of people admitted spending more than they did in 2014, and of those who did increase their Christmas spend, nearly one in five (18%) spent more than £200 more.

Many people may also find themselves facing a Christmas hangover that lasts into spring 2017.

Halifax found one in three (31%) people still had payments from Christmas 2015 outstanding at the start of February - and their Christmas financial hangover was typically expected to last until April.

Among these people, just over a third (34%) were concerned they may need to make cutbacks on non-essential spending to pay for the cost of the previous Christmas.

One in eight (12%) thought they might have to forego a holiday this year as a result.

And one in 10 spenders had made, or expected to make, cutbacks on food shopping to cover the cost of Christmas 2015.

Giles Martin, head of Halifax Savings, says: "With the typical cost of Christmas increasing to over £500 and the hangover stretching to a third of the year for some, it's never too early to think about how you will pay for it."

"If you can afford to save regularly to spread the cost, then the earlier you start saving, the less you need to find each month."

A third (34%) of festive spenders surveyed saved specifically for Christmas. More than half (55%) funded some of their Christmas spending through their salary.

Christmas can also leave many juggling debts.

Around one in three (31%) rely on a form of credit to fund Christmas, with credit cards being the most popular choice. Savings can also be a Christmas casualty - 7% of us end up dipping into savings we were not planning to spend on Christmas, the research among more than 2,300 people found.

There are also big differences between the sexes when it comes to Christmas spending, with women likely to spend around £100 more than men on Christmas.

Money Matters

So how can you stick to your budget in the run-up to Christmas?

Once you've got your Christmas savings pot together, deals sharing website HotUKDeals has some ideas to keep the costs down:

- Do your research. Special offers may look tempting, but make sure the savings have not been exaggerated. Check out reviews before making a purchase, particularly for electrical items such as TVs, to make sure the deal is worthwhile. Consider where the best places are likely to be to buy certain items.

- Be quick. Some online deals may sell out in seconds, so when you've done your research, be prepared to make your move.

- Don't necessarily wait until discount days like Black Friday. Some offers can start before these events, so keep an eye out for where or when discounts will take place.

- Watch out for hidden costs, such as postage, which can reduce the discount.

- Look out for codes for free shipping and discounts on the purchase price.

- Check delivery times for items you're buying as Christmas presents to make sure they won't arrive too late.

- Be a VIP. Some retailers release details of special offers to their VIP members first, so it may be worth signing up to receive their emails. If you're worried about your inbox overflowing, consider setting up an email account specifically for these types of offers.

P&L Accounts

THIS month saw the 10 millionth company formed at Companies House, this continues the dramatic rise in start ups across the country and our region.

Locally, P&L Accounts are the ideal small business and start up advisers, and this is because they offer a unique service delivered using the cloud. By using this latest technology they are able to support and assist their clients in ways traditional accountants can't, while being local they can still provide a friendly, professional service.

In addition to this the cloud software they provide is very easy to use, meaning the amount of time it takes to keep your records on track is greatly reduced so you have more time to increase your profits.

By focussing on small and start up businesses they are able to provide the advice you need at a price that is affordable. To help your cashflow and allow you to plan effectively they charge fixed monthly fees rather than large one off payments, so you avoid nasty surprises.

So if you're a small or start up business, or thinking of starting up, contact P&L Accounts on 01308 485255 or email steve@pandlaccounts.co.uk.

Having been established for over 30 years in West Street Bridport we have refurbished our offices and moved our front offices upstairs, therefore having all of our experienced team working seamlessly together on one floor.

With our entrance now to the rear of the building, our clients can also enjoy the benefit of parking in our private car park when visiting the office, adjacent to the Waitrose car park, and entering via the back door.

For our less nimble clients we do have access to a ground floor office though and offer home visits to any clients who may request one.

With continued investment in our team and systems we can offer you great, complete and easy to use services, ranging from Accountancy and Audit, Tax Services (Income tax returns, Company tax, Capital gains tax, Inheritance tax), Business Support Services (Planning and start-ups, Bookkeeping and VAT, Payroll and CIS bureau, HMRC enquiries/investigations) to Company Secretarial, Management Accounts and Software Training and Support.

We can also advice on the new Automatic Enrolment Duties imposed on small employers.

We also have the resources and the expertise to help you with issues that may arise with cash flow concerns, developing new businesses, strategic planning, profitability to succession and exit planning, customer relations and even over-working and lack of personal time, that you would think your accountant would be unable to provide a solution for.

Our aim is to provide a friendly and helpful service in all aspects of accountancy, tax and business support and aim to make our services professional and fair, including our charges and provide flexible payment options.

If you are looking for a better level of service or just starting out then contact us to arrange a free initial meeting.

Blackbury Honey Farm "Honeycomb and Kittens!"

We have two new additions to our family here at Blackbury Honey Farm, the kittens Dave and Geoffrey. Their job is to save the garden from the mice and rabbits which nibble plants and unearth bulbs. They seem to be unaware of this at the moment, however, and are basking in the adulation of our visitors. They certainly look appealing, curled up in the armchair they have adopted as their own and are very much available for photo opportunities.

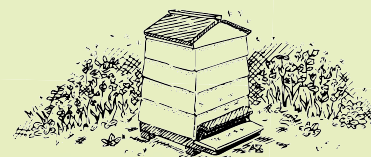

We know that one photograph of them is winging it's way to South Africa! The other addition to our family, our granddaughter Alice Rose, celebrated her 1st birthday on 30th September. As a premature baby she had a lot of catching up to do but she's made it and we send our thanks to all of our visitors who followed her progress with the kindest thoughts and encouragement. The beekeeping year is winding down to it's conclusion with the bees 'hibernating' in their winter quarters. We still have honey to extract and there is plenty of honeycomb for Christmas presents along with our jars of honey with whisky. We will be open until just before Christmas with seasonal treats and honey presents so come and be part of this special place.

GHOST POPS! - Turn a banana into a frightful ghost!

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 cup dried shredded coconut
- 6 raisins
- 12 chocolate chips (mini)
- 3 bananas
- 1.5 cups of orange juice
(You can drink it after you dunk the bananas.)
- 6 Popsicle sticks

PREPARATION:

Turn a banana into a frightful ghost! Cut the banana in half widthwise and insert a popsicle stick into the flat end. Freeze for a few hours, then dip in orange juice, followed by shredded coconut. Be sure to grab the dried shredded coconut. We found that moist coconut flakes did not stick to the banana well. Place two chocolate chips for eyes and a plump raisin for the mouth.

Jazz in the key of B-rilliant

MULTI-AWARD winning jazz pianist Dave Newton returns for an autumnal visit to Ilminster Arts Centre, this time in the company of Alex Garnett and Nigel Price, two top musicians who are well known on the London jazz scene.

Alex Garnett is one of the leading saxophonists in the UK and Europe, being instantly recognized by his dark, husky sound, what the Jazz Breakfast has called his "muscular style and a rich, gritty tone." Alex has performed with artists across the musical spectrum including Sir John Dankworth, Wynton Marsalis, Van Morrison, and The Rolling Stones, as well as contemporaries such as Gareth Lockrane and Joel Frahm. Garnett is a regular at Ronnie Scott's Jazz Club, where he has a weekly late-night residency; he released his second album with his new band 'Bunch of Five' in January of 2015.

Nigel Price is one of the most highly regarded and in demand guitarists on the UK jazz scene today. He spent three years with UK funk legends the James Taylor Quartet, and is also a regular at Ronnie Scott's, where he has clocked up over 400 performances. His blend of flowing bebop lines, deep blues feeling and mastery of chording has made him instantly accessible and popular with jazz audiences - not least at Ilminster Arts Centre, where he has played before to great acclaim.

Dave Newton is a regular at the Arts Centre and has been voted best Jazz Pianist in the British Jazz Awards no less than 13 times! His piano style has been described as 'urbane and resourceful', while in Time Out's opinion he is a "fantastic mainstream pianist who plays with wit and grace, as well as swinging like the clappers...". Dave's concerts are always popular and this is a chance to see him perform with two musicians who are also at the top of their game.

Dave Newton, Alex Garnett and Nigel Price perform at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Friday, October 28th at 8pm.

Tickets are £16, and a pre-show supper is available at 7pm for £13 but must be pre-booked.

To book please call the Box Office on 01460 54973.

ILMINSTER Arts Centre is giving budding wordsmiths the chance to take their words from the page to stage at their 'A Way with Words' event on Friday, November 4th.

At this unique event participants read (or sing) their own work, which might be a poem, short story, song or other literary creation, to the assembled audience. This year the theme is A Winter's Tale, but within this participants will find quite a bit of latitude, as organiser Angela Huskisson explains, "entries can be anything that fits this format and theme - all poetry, prose and flash fiction (a complete story in 250 or 500 words) is welcome, but not extracts from longer pieces."

Submitted items should be kept to just one page of writing to fit an A4 piece of paper; if using a computer, the font size should be 12 points. Please mark your name clearly on your entry. The absolute deadline is Friday October 28th; entries to be sent by email to Angela Huskisson at angihusk1850@gmail.com

The evening is a great opportunity to share your literary talents, in the supportive and informal atmosphere of Ilminster's Art Centre. But don't worry if you don't want to take to the stage: organiser Angela Huskisson can always find someone to read for you. If you would like to read, or have your poem or short story read for you, please contact Angela on 01460 241871.

Andrew Sutton will play and sing some of his work at the start and end of both sessions, and other sung pieces are also welcome. The bar will be open all evening.

Opera pops-up at The Beehive

Rossini's Il Barbiere di Siviglia

FOR ONE night only, experience opera like you've never seen before, as Pop-Up Opera take to the stage at The Beehive, Honiton with this incredibly fast-paced comical farce in their adaptation of this much loved score. Pop-Up Opera challenge the way opera is traditionally performed, by taking it into unusual spaces and making it fun, fresh and intimate. Rossini's famous opera buffa Il Barbiere di Siviglia (The Barber of Seville) is brought to life by the critically acclaimed company, sung in Italian with English captions.

Witness razor-sharp timing as the ever resourceful barber, Figaro, tries to help the young Count Almaviva win the hand of the beautiful Rosina out of love rather than for his wealth. Soon the pair set about to produce many disguises for the count, and thus the farce ensues...

Rossini's sparkling comic opera is given a 'make-under' in James Hurley's daringly unfussy staging, laying bare the characters in all their glorious eccentricity.

Company Director Clementine Lovell comments, The opera is so well known, and this will be a wholly different way of approaching it. We can never rely on a set or fancy props and costumes to carry our productions, so it forces us to be creative and to really pay attention to the drama and conveying the story in a totally engaging way.

A two-hour explosion of beautiful music, top-class singing, and exceptional acting... I honestly cannot imagine anyone, of any age or class or tastes, who would have been bored or unmoved (The Times).

The combination of an informal atmosphere and an engaging production, offers a greater connection to the singers and the music, something even seasoned opera-goers often miss.

Pop-up Opera are performing at The Beehive in Honiton on Friday, October 28th at 7.30pm.

WHETHER you're looking for that special gift or a little extra food item, there is something for everyone at the Craft Fair taking place at The Beehive on Saturday, November 5th. Entry is free.

These include potters, a blacksmith, textile workers, jewellers, woodworkers, artists, photographers, silk flower makers, card makers, glass decorators and a number of stalls with different Christmas decorations. We are also delighted that there will be the opportunity to purchase local hand made chocolates as well as chutneys and jams.

If you have children, The Beehive have arranged this year for The Creation Station to join us. They will be running a number of children's craft activities at a nominal cost.

And while you are thinking what you think would make the best present, make sure you visit the light and airy café where they will be serving a range of delicious refreshments.

The fair will be open from 10am until 3pm.

Mawkin rocking at the Beehive

IN 2015, Mawkin delivered their self-produced and critically acclaimed album 'The Ties That Bind'. Their 'unapologetically energetic' approach and DIY ethic surprised critics, fans and welcomed new audience members describing them as a 'modern day Fairport'. With a host of rebel rousing folk songs and instrumentals the band modernise traditional folk material with their own touch and have since excited audiences with their artillery of loud, boisterous, foot stomping live sets. Critics of the album suggested that Mawkin might fill the 'Bellowhead shaped hole' so it seemed only natural to support them on their farewell tour of 2016 amongst a flurry of key festivals and UK tour dates.

The band members have a wealth of other musical experience between them with brothers David and James's involvement with Eliza Carthy and Norma Waterson, Jim Moray, Topette!, and the two providing stand-in support for members of Bellowhead. Nick Cooke is Kate Rusby and False Lights' melodeon player, is a professional mastering engineer and has worked with some of the most iconic producers in our lifetime. Lee Richardson, who's former background was in dance music, is an award winning producer of TV, advertising and trailer music.

Mawkin will play live at the Beehive, Honiton on Sunday, October 30th at 7.30pm.

Tickets are £12 in advance or £14 on the door. Advance tickets available by calling 01404 384050 or from the website at www.beehivehoniton.co.uk

Put a Label on it

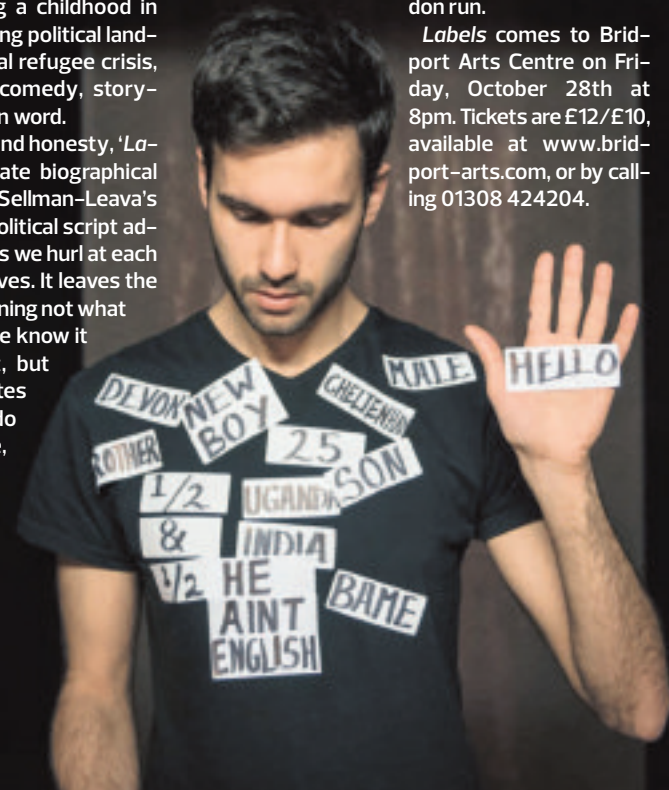

WORKLIGHT THEATRE'S multi-award winning show is a funny, moving and honest story about mixed heritage and immigration. Charting a childhood in 90s Devon, shifting political landscapes and global refugee crisis, the show uses comedy, storytelling and spoken word.

Using humour and honesty, 'Labels' is an intimate biographical show. Writer Joe Sellman-Leava's interactive and political script addresses the labels we hurl at each other and ourselves. It leaves the audience questioning not what is prejudice, as we know it when we see it, but how it permeates our life. Where do we draw the line, when does preference turn to bias to prejudice?

Expect paper planes, racist romances and lots of sticky labels. Using humour and honesty, Labels offers a human story from multicultural Britain, and is touring the UK after an award-winning Australian tour and London run.

Labels comes to Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, October 28th at 8pm. Tickets are £12/£10, available at www.bridport-arts.com, or by calling 01308 424204.

5 TIPS FOR ADDING VALUE

1. If you've outgrown your home and you can make it bigger by building an extension or converting the loft, cellar or garage, doing the work is often more economical than moving and gives you an opportunity to create space tailored to your needs. However, you need to be careful not to enlarge your home in the wrong way. You'll add most value if everything's in proportion - for example, the right number of bedrooms to bathrooms (aim for at least one bathroom to three bedrooms) and enough living space for the number of bedrooms.

2. Lofts are often straightforward to convert, especially if the work can be done under your home's permitted development rights, meaning that planning permission isn't required. Loft conversions usually add most value when turned into a suite with a main bedroom, bathroom or shower room and even, if there's enough space, a walk-in wardrobe or dressing room. If planning laws allow, maximising the space by adding a full-width dormer window and altering the side roof so it goes from sloped to 'straight' (when viewed from the front or back) makes for a larger and more valuable loft conversion.

3. These days, smaller, separate rooms are out and larger, open-plan rooms are in - as far as most of us are concerned. However, totally open-plan space isn't necessarily the best way to add value, or live day to day, especially if you have children. Open-plan kitchen-diners/family rooms are now extremely popular, but also having a separate, more formal sitting room works well for many families. Some families prefer to have a separate playroom or den for the kids, so the mess is self-contained.

4. One of the best ways to create an open-plan kitchen-diner/family room is to add a ground-floor extension (which can also often be done under your home's permitted development rights) to enlarge the existing kitchen and any rooms you're combining it with, such as a separate dining room. Add a wall of bi-fold doors leading out to the garden to give a wonderful feeling of inside-outside space and you have a valuable addition to your home.

5. If enlarging the kitchen isn't an option, modernising a dated kitchen is one of the best things you can do. Kitchens and bathrooms are the rooms that most sell homes because replacing them is expensive and disruptive, and while you don't have to spend a fortune to get a good look,

By Julia Gray, Press Association

any money spent is usually a good investment in these key rooms.

PRODUCT OF THE WEEK

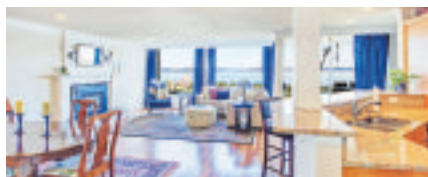

Light up DIY projects in these dark evenings with the AE0183 Rechargeable LED Work Light (£19.99, Screwfix). This sturdy metal light is cordless (with a three-hour battery life), so you can carry it from job to job without having to find somewhere to plug it in. The built-in 10W LED bulb gives off masses of light, but it doesn't make the casing or glass hot - non-LED work lights get extremely hot and so can be dangerous. The AE0183 has a fully adjustable head and a comfy-grip handle, and comes with two chargers - one for a socket and one for a car cigarette lighter - so there's no excuse for not keeping it charged.

HOW-TO TIP

Do you have unsightly radiator-pipe holes in varnished or stained floorboards? This is a common problem if the radiators have been moved, leaving the old holes. Carefully lifting the boards with holes in and fixing a piece of wood underneath will enable you to fill the holes easily. If you can't get the boards up and there's nothing to fill on to, gradually build up wood filler around the edge of each hole and when that's set hard, fill the middle of the hole. Use a flexible wood filler that's the same as, or a similar colour to, the floorboards, or stain the filler the same colour for a good finish.

The adventure begins: New Škoda Kodiaq to start from £21,495 (OTR)

UK PRICES and specifications for the all-new ŠKODA Kodiaq have been announced ahead of its showroom debut early next year. ŠKODA's first ever seven-seater SUV will start from just £21,495 (OTR) when ordering starts in November, and will be available from launch in four trim levels, five engine options, two and four-wheel drive, and a choice of manual or DSG gearboxes.

Setting a new benchmark for value

The Kodiaq will be available in 24 different variants when order books open in November. The range comprises three familiar trims; S, SE and SE L along with a new Edition grade that celebrates the arrival of the brand's first ever seven-seater SUV.

S

The range starts with the S model that despite its entry level status and price tag of just £21,495 (OTR), is brimming with standard equipment. The specification list includes LED daytime running lights, 17-inch Ratikon alloy wheels, leather multifunction steering wheel and manual air-conditioning. S models also feature Front Assist, KESSY Go, Swing touchscreen infotainment system, DAB digital radio and SmartLink for seamless smartphone connectivity. The S model is available with a 1.4 TSI 125PS engine only.

SE

SE models are priced from £22,945 (OTR) and are available with a broad range of engine and transmission options (see table for availability). Standard specification includes 18-inch Elbrus alloy wheels, sunset glass, cruise control and rear parking sensors. Customers also benefit from a Bolero touchscreen infotainment system with eight-inch display, dual-zone climate control, rain and light sensors and auto-dimming rear view mirrors. Seven seats are available as a £1,000 option in SE trim.

SE L

Further up the range, SE L models start from £28,595 (OTR) and feature a generous specification list. Among the equipment highlights are seven seats, which now become standard, powered tailgate, 19-inch Sirius alloy wheels, and Columbus navigation system with WiFi. Drive Mode Select, Alcantara upholstery, heated front seats and full LED headlights are also included as standard on all SE L models.

Edition

Topping the range from launch is a new Edition trim grade. Created to showcase the Kodiaq's exceptional range of equipment, Edition models start from £30,695 (OTR). Standard equipment includes 19-inch Trilium alloy wheels, seven seats, leather upholstery, metallic paint and chrome roof rails. Technology features include Lane Assist, High Beam Assist, wireless charging and phone box, and Blind spot detection.

Special edition Mitsubishi Outlander PHEV Juro goes on sale in the UK

MITSUBISHI Motors in the UK is launching a new high-specification special edition of its award-winning Outlander PHEV called the Outlander PHEV Juro, giving buyers even more reason to choose the nation's best-selling plug-in hybrid.

For the same price as the Outlander PHEV GX3+ on which it is based, £32,749[1], the limited edition Juro offers the added convenience of a touchscreen CD/DVD infotainment unit with TomTom satellite navigation, smartphone integration and DAB radio as standard, while the exterior is enhanced with an Outlander bonnet emblem.

As you would expect from the UK's best-selling plug-in hybrid electric vehicle, the Mitsubishi Outlander PHEV Juro comes fully loaded with a host of other features, including cruise control, 18" alloy wheels, heated front seats, the Mitsubishi PHEV app and dual-zone climate control.

The Outlander PHEV can travel up to 32 miles in electric mode alone – more than enough to accommodate most daily average journeys – and has effectively defined the emergence of the UK's plug-in hybrid sector.

In 2013, the year before its arrival, the total plug-in hybrid market across all marques stood at just 989, but Mitsubishi has sold more than 25,000 Outlander PHEVs in the UK since the pioneering 4x4's launch here in 2014, making it the nation's favourite plug-in vehicle.

TORRIDGESIDE 2

AXMINSTER TOWN 2

AXMINSTER Town were pegged back by two goals in the last 20 minutes and were forced to settle for a point in Saturday's 2nd versus 3rd clash at Torridgeside.

The hosts started well and beat Ax keeper Scott Wells-Burr bearteen twice only to see both efforts strike the goal frame.

The Tigers, lining up in a 4-5-1 formation, went one better in the 20th minute when midfielder Nathan Warren popped up with his fourth goal in five games.

And, after Torridgeside had an effort ruled out, it got even better for Ian Burns' side when Jamie Barfoot tapped – in from close range to double their advantage. That's how it stayed until mid-way through the second-half when Marc Bettiss pulled one back and Ryan Davies conjured up the equaliser in the 85th minute.

Next up for Axminster is tomorrow night's visit by struggling ALPHINGTON (7.30pm ko) in the first of two home games in four days with APPELDRE due at Tiger Way on Saturday (3pm ko).

Axminster: Scott Wells-Burr, Mark Scott, Craig Every, Chris Duchesnick, Elliot Dyer, Jame Barfoot, Liam Cleal, Callum Garrett, Nathan Warren, Danny Aplin, Oscar Latas. Subs: Brad-Lee Miller, Tony Pinder.

An OG and a Tyler Wellman goal couldn't save Sidmouth Town as they crashed out of the Devon Premier cup beaten 4-2 at home by BUDLEIGH SALTERTON.

The Vikings will hope for better from their SWP League match at AFC BRIGHAM on Saturday.

MATCH REPORTS

BEER ALBION 0 NEWTOWN 4

D&E Premier

BEER Albion put up a plucky performance against table-topping Newtown but went down 4-0 at the Furzebrake on Saturday writes Richard Honnor.

The Albion were up against it after two minutes when an intended cross from O'Donoghue sailed into the far corner of the net, and Newtown were soon away and clear at 3-0 after half an hour.

The Fishermen can take some credit however, particularly for their second half display when they tried, with some success, to match their opponents brand of free flowing football.

It was not enough however to prevent Newtown from adding a fourth goal from the penalty spot after an innocuous-looking challenge by Beer's Josh Harrison. Newtown striker Cory O'Donoghue scored a fine hat-trick and Luke Jones was their other scorer. Match sponsors Marine House at Beer gave the MoM award to Newtown frontman Ben Howard. For Beer, teenager George Harwood was the outstanding player.

Despite the defeat which leaves Beer pointless at the foot of the table, Player Manager Richard Walker was not discouraged: "I thought we played some good football at times but we were undone by defensive slips early on which then set the tone for the rest of the game."

MILLWEY RISE 0 ROSELANDS 2

Devon Intermediate Cup

TORRENTIAL rain throughout Saturday's match washed away any chance of Millwey progressing any further in the Devon Intermediate Cup writes Dick Sturch.

From the start, any cohesive football by either team was in short supply.

The home side had the better of any scarce opportunities that arose in the first 40 minutes with a header from Levi Hoole skimming the crossbar.

Roselands got on the score sheet in the 42nd minute courtesy of a header from a poorly defended corner.

In the second period the visitors hit the upright as they began posing a greater threat. Worse was to come when Levi Hoole limped off with an injury. Manager Simon Flint came on together with substitutes Nick Land and Sam Turner.

A few minutes later Tyler Warren was red carded which was a further blow to Rise getting back into the game.

To add insult to injury Roseland were then awarded a very dubious penalty from which they scored their second goal.

The final twist came when Roselands keeper escaped any punishment after he dragged down Flint in the penalty area – a far more blatant foul than what Nathan Hoole, in Millwey's goal, had earlier drawn a penalty for.

Both sides struggled to produce any flowing football. Partly down to the weather, but in a greater part due to the Referee's failure to make any allowance for the conditions underfoot.

This was the major reason seven yellow cards and a red were produced in a game that was far from being rough or dirty.

ST. MARTINS 3RDS 0 MILLWEY RES 0

D&E Division Nine

WITH seven regulars missing this was a gutsy team performance from the Millwey Reserve team.

That the game remained scoreless can be attributed to a fantastic save by Rise keeper Terry Male. With ten minutes to go and the ball looking certain to cross the line but he somehow managed to claw it to safety.

This, together with an impressive display from Matt Rocket in defence, saw Millwey maintain their unbeaten league start.

Round-up

The Devon Senior cup holders EXETER UNIVERSITY had to dig deep to win their second round tie at SPORTING BARUM in North Devon 3-2.

Liam Caret scored six as CRONIES FC crushed NEWTON POPPLEFORD 10-1.

Martin Hancock grabbed four goals and Aaron Daniels and Alex Wheatley singles as AXMINSTER TOWN thrashed SANDFORD 6-1. SIDMOUTH TOWN swept through 7-0 at DARTMOUTH. Colyton were involved in a Devon Senior Cup second round 12-goal extra time thriller at Priority. "It was very, very, scrappy," said Coly boss Mike Cullum. It was 2-2 inside the opening 10 minutes but Cullum's side then took control to lead 5-2 at half-time.

However, some poor defending saw the hosts strike three times to equalise.

Back came the Tanners, and they clinched the tie with two goals in extra time despite finishing the game with nine men due to two injuries and having no subs. Cal Somers bagged a hat-trick with Nathan Maddocks (2), George Richards and James Salter also on target.

HONITON TOWN eased back up to second spot in the Premier Division after thrashing NEWTON ST CYRES 10-0. Chris Long (3), Tom Perryman (3), Luke Barwick, Lewis Couch, Matt Long, Dan Broom and Louis Grant shared the goals.

FENITON had Adrian Pullin to thank for keeping the goal-count down as they were beaten 3-0 at home by HEAVITREE UNITED.

An own goal and Dan Scadden earned UPTOTTERY a hard fought 2-1 victory at CLYST VALLEY while OKEHAMPTON ARGYLE and SEATON TOWN shared four goals and the points with the Oks missing a last minute penalty. Seth Wakely and Jacob Rowe netted for Seaton were the home marksmen.

The only match played in Division One saw LYME REGIS beat WELLINGTON TOWN 3-2 with Chris Herbst – a superb long-range volley – Kieran Daniels and Dan Baggs netted for the Seaside's with the Wellies scoring their late consolation with the last kick of the game.

In form LYME REGIS RESERVES made it five wins on the spin with a 2-0 triumph at ELMORE RES. An OG and Fred Prsors' first goal for the club saw the Seaside's home.

Down in Division Nine Newton POPPLEFORD RES won 6-4 at Axminster Town 3rds. Jamie Tait, Adam Whitehouse, John Vaughan and Mike Knight shared the Tigers' goals.

There were 10 goals at TED-BURN too where the hosts and visitors HONITON TOWN 3RDS finished 5-5. Ryan Pike netted a hat-trick and Karl Allen a brace for the Hippers.

FIRST half goals from Dan Richards and Jack Larcombe saw HAWKCHURCH UNITED through to round two of the Devon Intermediate cup after a hard-fought 2-1 win over visitors Brauntown 3rds.

Gavin Herrod struck the bar early on for the Hawks, but it was Richards who broke the deadlock tucking away the rebound after Larcombe's shot had come back off an upright.

A foul on James Melville allowed Larcombe to make it 2-0 from the penalty spot.

The second half was a battle against the elements with the visitors pulling one back but the Hawks, with Simon Herrod and Josh Short in fine form, held on.

Meanwhile, goals from Ollie Reed, Tom Olive, Liam Rodgers, Jake Hurford and Jack Murrell saw FARWAY UNITED go three points clear in top spot in the PSDL Division Two after a 5-0 win at Chard United Reserves. FARWAY UTD RES were well beaten 6-0 by visitors Misterton Res.

Kat's the cream as Hornets march clear in top spot

Chard A 3 ECV Hornets B 1

TWO goals from Trevor Goss in the last seven minutes made it three wins out of three for Chard 2nd XI in a keenly contested match finished in torrential rain.

Hornets were restricted to a handful of scoring opportunities throughout, but they had one effort hit the post and took an early lead after Richard Green had made the initial save, the follow up also striking the post before being put in the net at the second time of asking.

This was tough on Chard, but, within a minute of going behind, they were back on level terms. Jason Goddard made a surging run into the D and laid off a pass for Harvey Denning to equalise.

For all Chard's pressure, the visitors' back line continued to get enough bodies behind the ball to smother efforts on goal. For a long time the game seemed destined for a draw.

However, debutante Matt Kane slid a cross along the back line to allow Trevor Goss to nip in and beat the keeper. Four minutes later, Chard made sure of all three points as Goss pounced again to beat the tiring Hornets defence.

Thanks to match sponsors: Beviss & Beckingsale Solicitors and to umpires Hannah McGown and Alan Cheffey.

Chard: R Green, N Liggins, A Critchley, P Pratt, S Mahoney, N Parkinson, T Eames, J Green, J Goddard, J Spurdle (capt), C Knight, G Wheaton, H Denning, T Goss, M Kane.

Honiton Hornets 3
Sidmouth & Ottery 3rds 0

THE competition was tougher again this week with SOHC fielding a strong defensive line up to try and keep the high-flying Hornets at bay.

SOHC Keeper Brownwyn Spencer made some great saves to keep the Hornets out for the first quarter. But Honiton broke the deadlock when Sophie George and Amy Phillips combined well before setting up Vanessa Trude for a relatively easy shot into the goal from the left post.

Honiton doubled their lead in the second half when good work from Phillips and Jenny Dolling released Kat Tucker in the circle with time and she made no mistake.

The final goal was a great piece of individual skill from Player of the Match Tucker who weaved skilfully around the SOHC defence before finishing with a strong reverse stick strike.

A hard fought but well deserved result for the Hornets this week sees them remain at the top of the league table but the competition is getting stronger every week.

Dyer does the double

FRESH from success at the Sutton Bingham Laser Grand Prix event, Martock-based sailor Rob Dyer has retained the Club Championship, one of the most hotly contested events at the club.

The first race was sailed on a glorious sunny, warm day but the wind really didn't want to play ball. Race Officer, Mike Riley had the almost impossible task of setting a good course with the wind flicking around in all directions and becoming pretty much un-sailable by the finish. Dyer in his Laser won the first race with Andrew Frost in an RS Aero 7 in second and his dad Richard third in a Solo.

The follow-up weekend was a cooler, with a 8-10mph breeze blowing down the Halstock leg of the lake which meant a windward/leeward course was the order of the day.

Ian Jay sailing a Finn took an early lead but was overhauled by Dyer. Third to finish on the water was Pete Barnstable in a Blaze, but when times were adjusted for handicap it was Dyer first, Andrew Frost second, reverting to his RS Aero 5 rig and Howard Frear third in his Streaker.

In the final race Dyer was over the line at the start but was quick to exonerate himself.

Richard Heaton was also over, returned to restart and then promptly capsized which gave him a huge margin to recover. Chris Bottomley in his Zero led the pack on the first lap before being overtaken by Jay.

Frost, who stepped back up to the RS Aero 7 rig, battled it out with Adrian Neal in his Supernova crossing the finish at the same time as Barnstable.

Overall results were based on the best two results of the three races series:

1st – Rob Dyer, Laser (1,1,2)
2nd – Ian Jay, Finn (DNC, 4, 1)
3rd – Andrew Frost, RS Aero 7 (2, DNC, 3)
4th – Richard Frost, Solo (3, 5, 7, 5)
5th – Howard Freer, Streaker (DNC, 3, 7, 5)
Top Cadet – Max Roberston, RS Tera (8th place)
Top Lady – Kelsey Green, Laser Radial (9th place).
